PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance1 Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On May 22, 2016, an officer with the Colville Tribal Police Department advised the undersigned that the offender had been arrested on May 22, 2016, on a charge of domestic violence for allegedly striking his girlfriend. The officer stated the offender's girlfriend had accused the offender of stealing her car. The offender allegedly struck her when she made the accusation against him. He was arrested for the offense and is currently in the Colville Tribal Jail. The Colville Tribal Police Department officer advised that the girlfriend's vehicle was located at the offender's father's residence. The offender denied driving the vehicle. The officer did not charge the offender for the alleged vehicle theft. The officer advised that his report will be forwarded to the prosecutor's office, and will be reviewed for possible charges related to the alleged vehicle theft.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.
